

Fruit of the Vine

"I'm getting ready to do something that is going to shake everyone up and get their attention."

1 Samuel 3:11

Work of Human Hands

Every school's essential tool for liturgy, mission, and ministry in 2024

Liturgy Ritual Prayer is excited to launch Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands; an indispensable opportunity to assist you in nurturing and enriching Catholic Identity in your school that will connect faith with everyday life for young people.

Who is this day designed for?

- APRE's/Heads of Mission
- Religious Education Coordinators
- School Leadership Teams
- Classroom Teachers
- Music Teachers
- Campus Ministers/Youth Leaders

Led by experienced mission and ministry leaders across Australia, Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands is a one-day professional learning workshop that will help you to plan, prepare, and lead prayer, liturgy and ritual in your school.

- ✓ Engaging
- ✓ Inclusive
- ✓ Relevant
- ✓ Meaningful

Prayer was an essential component of Jesus' ministry.

Jesus' disciples knew the power of prayer and asked Jesus to teach them to pray.

Fruit of the Vine

Work of Human Hands

Full of rich content, Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands includes topics such as:

Nurturing the Soil – what to keep in mind for preparing good liturgy, prayer and ritual (e.g. setting up the physical environment, formation for those taking on ministry roles, what to consider when negotiating with clergy, preparing students for full and reverent participation).

Flourishing with Seasons and Saints – ideas for celebrating the Saints and Seasons.

Flourishing in Lent and Easter – a bespoke component focussing on the most significant celebrations of the Church's liturgical year.

Flourishing in Ordinary Time – unpacking the longest liturgical season of the year, with ways to incorporate everyday symbols, words and actions.

Flourishing throughout the School Year – how to ritualise the everyday events of the school year (e.g. Mothers'/Fathers' Day, blessing of new students, staff and families, sporting achievements, cultural activities, birthdays, critical incidences).

Flourishing with Music – incorporating new and contemporary music (as well as the best of old favourites) into celebrations.

Flourishing with Technology – best practice for technology in celebrations, including what's out there, what works, and what to do when it doesn't go to plan!

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to refresh your outlook on liturgical catechesis, gather a wealth of new resources and ideas, and plan for the 2024 school year.

- ✓ Professional development that can be shared with staff
- ✓ New resources and ideas
- ✓ Discover ways to incorporate student voice into celebrations

Fruit of the Vine

Work of Human Hands

“ Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands was what I have been looking for! Not only has it helped me get ready for all the ritual and liturgical events for the year, but now I have access to a suite of ready-made resources that I can tailor to suit the needs of my own school community.

Putting aside a day to get ready for the year has been such a blessing. It has been great to unpack ideas and put new energy into how we celebrate our faith.

Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands is worth every cent! ”

Nick Tyler
Assistant Principal Religious Education
St Martin's Primary School, Carina, QLD

Remove the guesswork and stress out of planning for 2024.

Fruit of the Vine – Work of Human Hands is an unmissable opportunity to engage new ideas, strategies, suggestions, and ready-made resources that will breathe new life into your prayer, liturgy and ritual in 2024.

There is something for everyone – those new and those with a wealth of experience!

Reserve your spot TODAY!

 Liturgy Ritual
Prayer

info@liturgyritualprayer.com
www.liturgyritualprayer.com